VISION

IRUS is the first Korean-American seminary to establish the English Track in Orange County for the advancement of reformed theology around the world. It is our sincere conviction that the Lord has entrusted us with a unique vision to train, equip, and nurture Christian spiritual leaders to serve his kingdom. In particular, our vision is to reach out to students through local pastors, missionaries, and churches already connected to the Middle East and Southeastern Asian countries such as Cambodia, Laos, Thailand, and Vietnam. Our seminary has established these global networks over the years through our students, alumni, and friends, and will continue to develop new connections.

We are keenly aware of the suffering and persecution that our brothers and sisters are facing and enduring in those places. Many have been martyred for their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and, as a result, many churches have been left without shepherds to guide them. But by his marvelous grace, God is gradually rebuilding his beloved bride, the church, around the world. IRUS wants to be part of God's work of renewing and restoring his beloved church through offering sound biblical and reformed theological training to select individuals, so they may return to their homeland well equipped to minister with the Gospel in whatever capacity God calls them.

FACULTY

The English Track Faculty holds degrees from prestigious seminaries and universities in America and abroad that strive for theological and academic excellence (e.g. Covenant Theological Seminary, Fuller Theological Seminary, Reformed Theological Seminary, University of Chicago, and Westminster Seminary California). Our professors are thoroughly prepared to equip and develop mature Christian leaders for service for many decades to come.

Please prayerfully seek the Lord's will in discerning how you might play an active role in our vision to raise up future leaders for Christ's church worldwide.
